Dear Sir:

Enclosed is the manuscript of the Trinity Lutheran Church Records, 1819-1868. Lack of sufficient funds prevented their publication, and my recall to active duty with the Army necessitates their disposal.

Some time ago I received a card from you advising me that you had not received two books on Claverack and Kinderhook but that you had received Pearson's Settlers of Albany. They were mailed prior to the latter book, but it was during the mail embargo, and I hope that you have received them by this time.

My address in the future will be-

HISTORICAL SKETCH

The following historical sketch appeared in the Bedford Inquirer in the issues of March 30, April 6, and April 30, 1894, and was presented by Emily Blanche Mann at the opening of the Sunday school rooms:

Bedford was first settled in or before 1751. That there were Lutherans among the earliest settlers is evidenced by the fact that, in 1766 a burial ground was set apart, at the laying out of the town, for the members of the Presbyterian, German Reformed and Lutheran bodies here at that time. The ground thus set apart was designated by the Surveyor General, John Lukens, thus-"For the Calvinists and Lutherans of the town for a burial place." There Were Lutherans here then, or why this bequest?

The following is a copy of a permit given by John Penn, whose signature and seal it bears, which permit is engrossed on parchment, and is in a good state of preservation, though the hand that penned it has long since been crumbled to dust:

PENNSYLVANIA SS.

By the Hon. John Penn, Esq., Lieutenant Governor and Commander in chief of the province of Pennsylvania and Counties of New Castle, Kent, Sussex on Delaware.

To all People to whom these presents shall come, Greeting.

Whereas, it hath been represented to me, by the Humble Petition of Jost Schoenwolf, of the Town of Bedford in the County of Cumberland in the province of Pennsylvania, Yeoman, that the protestant reformed Congregation and the protestant evangelical Lutheran Congregation in and near Bedford aforesaid, has taken up a Lot of Ground in the said Town, inclosed in the same, were desirous thereon to erect a House of worship or church for the joynt Use of the two said Congregations and that there was no house of worship or Church within seventy miles of the said Town of Bedford, & that the said two Congregations were poor and not able, out of their own Means to carry their Pious Intention into Execution without the Help or Assistance of good People who have the Promotion of Religion at Heart. And it appears to me, that the said Jost Schoenwolf hath been deputed by thirty-eight of the principal Members of the said two several Congregations to collect the charitable Donations of the good People as were willing to contribute their Mite towards the said Undertaking. And the said two Congregations having humbly prayed me to grant them a Brief to collect Money for the good purposes aforesaid, And I favoring their Request. These are therefore to permit & license the said Jost Schoenwolf within the space of three years from the date hereof next ensuing to make collection of the good People within my government who are willing to contribute toward the building of a Church or House of worship for the said two several Congregations at and near Bedford aforesaid any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding in the whole six hundred Pounds lawful Money of Pennsylvania.

Given under my Hand and Seal at Arms at the City of Philadelphia the twenty-first Day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and sixty-nine, and in the ninth year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord George the third by the Grace of God, Defender of the Faith and so forth.

John Penn.

By his Honor's Command,
Joseph Shippen, Jr., Secretary.

All that is here told us is that the congregations were poor, that they worshipped together, and that they had the ~~laudable~~ laudable purpose of erecting for themselves a suitable place of worship. The result of this purpose was the erecting of a log church, that stood where is now the present Reformed church; the subsequent erection of the quaint brick building with its spire in the middle of the roof; the separation of the two congregations in 1849, the erection of a brick church by the Lutherans, which was afterwards displaced by our present structure; and the tearing down in 1881 by the Reformed congregation of the old brick church and the building of their present edifice in 1833. The original log church, built in part by the charitable offerings of such good and loyal subjects of King George the Third as had the promotion of religion at heart, was taken down about 1817, and Philip Williams, the contracting carpenter, used the logs to build his own house on Penn street, next west of the Keeffe residence.....

From 1770 to 1785 we have no record. During this period the German churches were ministered to by traveling missionaries whose labors extended over a large extent of territory....

The church at Bedford received its first regular pastor in the person of Rev. W. Steck in 1785. How long his labors continued here we have been unable to learn, tho' it was probably for some years as there is no record of a successor until 1805.

Rev. Frederick Hainsey, in 1805, preached in Bedford and vicinity, baptising children, confirming the believing and administering the Lord's Supper....

In 1812, Rev. Mr. Cramer came here as pastor. At that time, the old log church was still standing, but looked as if it had never been used for services....

The next minister of whom we have record was Rev. Mr. Deitterman, who was pastor in Bedford sometime between 1812 and 1818.

He was followed by Rev. M. Osterloh in 1818, who continued his labors here until the year 1828. Mr. Osterloh was a native of Germany, and the earliest church records we have were made during his pastorate. The records are written in the German language.... At this time the Bedford church had about one hundred members, many of them living from five to ten miles distant. It was during his pastorate that the old union brick church was built at the corner of John and Thomas streets. For some years prior to 1823, after the destruction of the old log church, the church services of the Reformed and Lutheran congregations were held in the court house. On June 11, 1823, the corner stone of the new church was laid, it is said, by Rev. W. Yeager of friend's Cove on the part of the Lutherans, and Rev. J. H. Gerhart on part of the Reformed church. The house was dedicated to the service of God, September 19, 1824. From this time until 1849, the congregations used this building alternately.

Mr. Osterloh's successor was Rev. William Yeager, who continued to serve this and neighboring churches until 1838....

Father Yeager, as he was called, was succeeded by Rev. Wm. L. Gibson in 1838 and he labored here until 1841....

Rev. Reuben Weiser was the next pastor. He continued here from August 1, 1841 to April 1, 1846.... Schellsburg was part of this charge at that time. Mr. Weiser was instrumental in having a Lutheran church built at that place, and from that time Schellsburg had a minister distinct from Bedford.

Rev. P. M. Rightmeyer was the next pastor in the Bedford ~~church~~ church, taking charge April 1, 1846, and leaving in one year....

The next minister was Rev. J. Winecoff who came here April 1, 1847 and remained two years. During his pastorate the membership numbered one hundred and forty....

Rev. Winecoff's successor was Rev. Frederick Benedict, who commenced his labors here April 1, 1849, and preached his farewell sermon November 7, 1858, having been pastor almost ten years. His was a wide field of labor, embracing St. Clairsville, the Dunning's Creek settlement and Friend's Cove, and Cumberland and Snake Spring Valleys, and had within its bounds fourteen preaching places.... It was during his pastorate that the Lutherans sold their interest in the brick church on John Street to their fellow-owners, the Reformed Congregation, and erected a brick church on the square....

Rev. Benedict's successor was Rev. Samuel Yingling, who commenced his labors here in January, 1859, and continued them until July, 1864. During his pastorate the St. Clairsville and Stone churches were separated from this charge.

The next minister in charge was Rev. A. Essick. His pastorate continued for two years, from October 1, 1864, to October 1, 1866.

~~His successor was Rev. J. Q. McAtee, who came here February 1, 1867, and left February 26, 1871. During his stay here the church building was torn down and the present edifice was commenced.~~

His successor was Rev. J. Q. McAtee, who came here February 1, 1867, and left February 26, 1871. During his stay here the church building was torn down and the present edifice was commenced.

FLY-LEAF NOTES

"The Lutheran Congregation in Bedford worshipped in the old Lutheran and Reformed Union Church on John Street until the summer of 1849 when the new Lutheran Church on the public square was completed. The new church was built in 1877 and dedicated the 2d Sunday of December 1877. Prior to 1849, the Lutheran and Reformed Congregations worshipped in the Union Church on John Street, the brick building there was built in 1823. This structure had been preceded by a log church on the Davis ground, the date of the creation of which is not known."

"By a certificate of baptism shown me by Jacob Dibert whose parents, Charles & Mary, lived on the Nathaniel Smith property on the Hickory Bottom Road, and who were Lutherans, it appears that a Lutheran preacher named Frederick Hainsey preached and baptized Lutheran children here in 1805. This certificate is dated May 23, 1805."
